

ARE YOU ON THE GREEN?

HAVE you caught up with Golf Australia's new weekly online magazine, On The Green Express? If you haven't here's what you will find.

On The Green Express is e-mailed to more than 37,000 subscribers every Tuesday morning, with all the latest news and views from the world of golf. There's tournament and player news, while we track the performances of Australian players competing abroad.

We are also the first to showcase any new equipment launched, while we take a different, quirky look at the game with our 'Numbers' and 'Quotes Of The Week' columns.

This month, if you subscribe to On The Green Express, you will go into the draw to win a Mizuno Tour Elite Staff bag, worth $499.

The redesigned Flagship of Mizuno Golf has been created to surpass the demands of Mizuno's Tour players. The bag features a five-away top cuff divider preferred on Tour for versatile club storage, while the 5.5kg bag has a balance handle for a more comfortable carry, working with the natural angle of your wrist. There is a lightweight, waterproof rainhood that folds down to use less pocket space, while the Mizuno HydroSleeve offers an easy-access sleeve for water bottle storage.

You could be one of the first in your club to own one of these great bags, simply by subscribing to On The Green Express.

For more details about this impressive staff bag, call Mizuno Australia on (03) 9239 7100 or visit the website www.mizuno.com.au

LIVING ON COURSE MADE EASY

TRYING to find a waterfront home anywhere, let alone in a city that you're not familiar with, is only achievable by an exhaustive search of many agents in many suburbs. That used to be the only way to find golf course-associated properties as well – until now.

Now there is a website that serves as a 'directory' for people looking to find properties for sale located within golf-course precincts – golfinghomes.com.au

On this site you can search for properties in a variety of ways. If you are only interested in Victorian properties, for example, then you can look for land, apartments or homes for sale in that state. If you have identified the particular golf course you want to purchase near, then the search can be narrowed down to those specific properties.

The site was developed by Port Stephens-based Patsi Brown about four years ago when she recognised the niche marketing needs for these specialist homes.

Essentially the site works 'hand in glove', with real estate marketing schedules bringing the added benefits of being able to generate greater website traffic for these properties largely from the golf sector, plus making it easier for these specialty homes to be found by potential buyers.
